

New York-Presbyterian Morgan Stanley's Children's Hospital
Pediatric Urology Department
3959 Broadway, 11th Floor
New York, NY 10032
Between 165th Street and Broadway

There are two entrances to the Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital. The main entrance is located on Broadway at 165th Street. The glass atrium entrance, allowing wheel chair and stroller accessibility, is located on 167th Street and Broadway.

The Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital is located on Broadway between 165th and 167th Street in Washington Heights, near the New York side of the George Washington Bridge, and is easily accessible by car, bus and subway.

From Upstate New York and New Jersey:

After crossing the George Washington Bridge, follow signs to the Henry Hudson Parkway (also called the West Side Highway). Take the Riverside Drive exit and proceed South to 165th Street (the first left). Take 165th Street one block to Fort Washington Avenue. Take a left at Fort Washington Avenue to 168th Street. At 168th Street, make a right and proceed to Broadway. Take a right on Broadway. The Hospital will be on your right.

From Riverdale and Westchester via the Saw Mill River Parkway:

Exit the Henry Hudson Parkway at the Riverside Drive immediately past the George Washington Bridge. See directions from Riverside Drive above.

From Westchester, Connecticut, and the East Side of Manhattan via major Deegan, Cross Bronx Expressway or Harlem River Drive:

Approaching the George Washington Bridge, take the Henry Hudson Parkway, stay on the left and follow signs to Riverside Drive. Follow directions above from Riverside Drive.

From West Side of Manhattan:

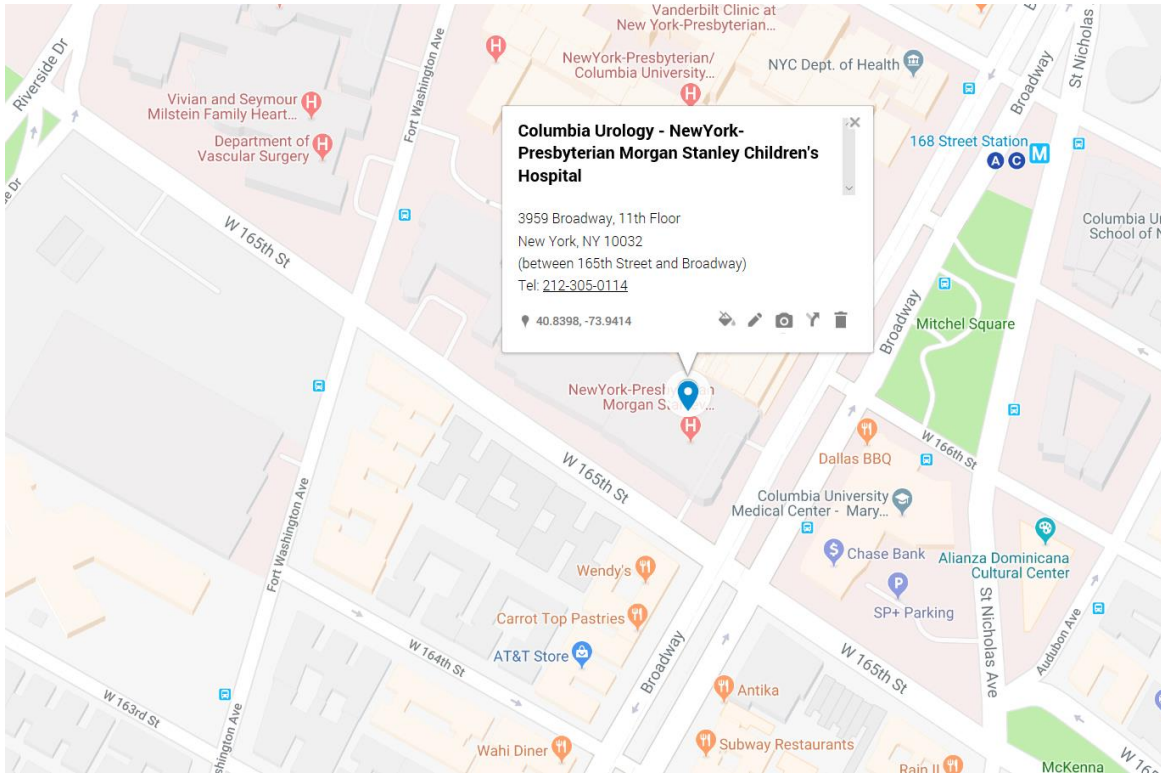

Take Henry Hudson Parkway to Exit 15-Riverside Drive South. Follow directions from Riverside Drive above.

Public Transportation:

Via subway — A, C or 1 train to 168th Street and Broadway. Bus — M2, M3, M4, M5, M100 to the Hospital stop.

Parking:

Valet parking is available for patients' families and visitors from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, in front of the entrance of Broadway and 166th Street. For all other times, use the 165th Street and Fort Washington parking garage. Parking is free on the day of discharge.
